

Kelly Mosaic Board

100% Recycled Building Material

Kelly Mosaic Board is a unique panel product made of 100% recycled material. The content is shredded and compressed, giving the user a sustainable and superior performing panel. The Kelly Recycled Food Carton and LDPE Plastic Containers Board is a durable, moisture-resistance sustainable solution made of a polycoated paper waste without facing material. The shreds of recycled paper are left exposed, creating an exclusive design that says "recycled" at first glance.

Applications

Kelly Mosaic Board is designed for use as a decorative wall board, wall tile backer, ceiling panel, curvature wall or replacement for fiberglass or nylon reinforced panel. The boards provide a versatile resource for any building project.

Limitations

As with comparable building products, Kelly Mosaic Board should only be exposed to moisture for short periods of time.

Kelly Mosaic Board is not intended for structural applications or exterior finish.

The Kelly Board is not intended for applications other than what is specified.

Sustainability

Everything we need for our survival and well-being depends on our natural environment. In order to promote conditions in which humans can continue to exist with clean water, air and soil, we proudly make our building products from 100% recycled beverage cartons, cups and their components. Our eco-friendly process differs vastly from manufacturing of the traditional materials we replace. We use no formaldehyde glues, water or hazardous chemicals. We take a typically very hard to recycle composite material (cartons) and upcycle them into very durable, moisture and mold resistant composite panels. Our products improve air quality because they emit no VOCs. Recycled and recyclable Kelly Mosaic Board can be used to gain easy LEED and NGBS certification. Many call us resource efficient. We call it the Kelly Mosaic Board.
